

17th November 2015

We are privileged to announce that the ADGE Hotel has been shortlisted to win the Haute Grandeur Global Hotel Awards 2016 in the below categories:

- Boutique Hotel
- City Hotel
- Design Hotel
- Luxury Hotel Apartments
- Small Hotel

Steven Gargano, General Manager stated that 'Being nominated for these prestigious global awards is very beneficial for a boutique hotel of our calibre and size. In a city such as Sydney, with a large number of hotels it is important to be different and to be recognised for this. ADGE Hotel strives to provide every guest with their own personal service that will not be forgotten along with the additional items are guests get to enjoy throughout their ADGE experience.

The international exposure we have already seen through being shortlisted has been outstanding, and this will continue as the awards approach and also post awards should we be successful'.
